

RETAIL & COMMERCIAL SOLUTIONS

Regardless of whether you are selling durable and/or non-durable goods to your buyers having the right distribution process is critical. Part of that distribution process is how and where you present those goods.

- Is your location conveying the right impression?
- Are you constructing a permanent store but need swing space now?
- Is there enough space to show your product to its best advantage?
- Do you need multiple locations or are you a seasonal retailer?

also assist you in the stock room. Inventory levels ebb and flow with the seasons and our storage containers make it easy to safely and securely go with the flow.

A good location can translate into higher sales. Our mobile office solutions can transform any location into a winner.

Temporary mobile office space can work as hard for you as your best salesperson. It provides that bright and clean environment you require right now ranging from new home sales centers or pro shops to seaside pop up shops. Our furnishings, appliances and accessories can make that modular space ready to work as soon as you accept delivery so you will never miss a sales opportunity! Beyond the showroom we can

